8/7/67

Dear Psul,

When a number of newsworthy things come to pass, as may happen by the time you get this, in the New Orleans trial of Dean Andrews, you will recall that I sure did try and tell you and to give you an advance tape recording of some of it that I gaveGarrison back in February.

Other developements impend elswhere. I doubt if Mr. Big can stifle them all, or Mrs. CBS, either.

I know the magnitude of the effort to suppress. I feel I am its prime target. But I am perhaps naive enough to believe that Andrews' unguarded 2/17 prediction of his coming perjury and his so graphic description of the reason for it, together with his other picturesque declarations, like knowing who Clay Bertrand is, before he started bucking a Section 8, and who the Mexicano is, and about wanting to live more than anything else, even more than chasing the broads when mama isn't looking, will get some play.

Sincerely,
